Detailed Itinerary

Your guide will take care of the tickets booking beforehand and he/she will accompany you to draw the paper tickets out upon use.

As the ancient capital city of 13 dynasties in Chinese history, Xi'an boasts itself of its profound culture, of which the Tang Dynasty (618AD-907AD) Music & Dance is the most graceful and splendid part showing the prosperous civilization at that time. It is one of the Top Ten Xi'an Attractions which most visitors will not miss.

The Tang Dynasty Music & Dance Show, by assembling the advantages of music and dance of all the past dynasties and absorbing the essence of minority nationality and foreign culture, has fully depicted the prosperous Tang Dynasty folk customs. During the one hours show, beautiful girls wearing long sleeve and colorful Tang Dynasty dresses sing merrily and dance gracefully, classic national orchestra accompany the dance with the ancient musical instruments such as the bell, drum, lyra and zither, and poets in Tang Dynasty costumes read the ancient verses and songs.

Three of the most representative music stanzas are "Spring Outing", "The Feather Dress Dance" and "The Warriors Triumphal Dance ". "Spring Outing" depicts a group of young girls returning from a spring outing, dancing and singing. Their beautiful green dresses, long sleeves and graceful gestures make them look light the spring fairies. "The Feather Dress Dance" was created by Lady Yang, the favorite concubine of Emperor Xuan Zong in the Tang Dynasty. According to the legend, Xuan Zong dreamed that he traveled to the palace of the moon, where he met some celestial women dressed in feathers like rosy clouds dancing in the sky. After he awoke, he told the story to Lady Yang, who then created and performed this dance according to the emperor's recollection.

The Warrior Triumphal Dance, which was about Li Shimin, the second Tang emperor who claimed himself Prince of Qin during the war before the founding of the dynasty, vividly shows the morale of his powerful commanding troops.

In the local theaters, the show is usually served together with dinner. For dinner, you may choose local dishes or the Dumpling Banquet. While enjoying the show, you will feel like back to the Tang Dynasty experiencing the Tang court life and the social customs. More importantly, you will have a thorough understanding of the history of traditional Chinese music and dance. All this is expected to make you know profoundly about the age-old Chinese culture.

After the show, your driver will transfer you back to hotel for rest.
