

Kung Fu Show in Red Theater

Basics

Title: Kung fu Show in the Red Theater

Duration: 1 hour and 10 mins (17:15-18:25; 19:30-20:40 )

Meeting point: Hotel

Place to visit: Red Theater

Overview: When speaking of Kung fu or martial art, many people think of China. It's hard to eliminate the stereotype that all Chinese can practice Kung Fu. The fact is not every Chinese person is capable of practicing Kung Fu. Most of them don't. Perhaps earlier than any other practitioners, Bruce Lee opened the eyes of the Western world to the fascinating practices of Chinese martial arts; now the worldwide followers of the various related disciplines are in the millions. If you are sick of just sitting in front of the screen to see it you are most welcome to join this experience and see with your own eyes how Kung fu is performed.

Highlights

- Enjoy a live Kung fu show performed in front of your eyes;
- Learn about the relation between martial art and Buddhism;
- Skip-the-line access for your entrance tickets;
- Private transfer services available anytime you need.

Itinerary

Date	Starting Time	Destination
Day 1	Flexible	Kungfu Show

After your day trip, your guide will drop you off at the Red Theater and collect the paper tickets for you before leaving you to enjoy on your own.

The show is named "The Legend of Kung Fu". The story follows the life adventures of a young boy found wandering outside an ancient temple. Like every boy in China, he dreams of becoming a Kung Fu master. On the road to enlightenment, the young monk encounters many difficulties and temptations. There are seven chapters all together.

Chapter one: Enlightenment.

A little boy left his beloved mother and went to the Buddhist temple to be a monk and learn Kung fu. He was renamed Chun Yi.

Chapter two: Kung fu Learning

Chun Yi began to learn Kung fu and practice it day and night. Soon he became a young monk with outstanding Kung fu skills.

Chapter three: Further refinement

Chun Yi practiced more to better his Kung fu skills and became almost invincible.

Chapter four: Outside Temptation

As he reached a certain age, he craved women so much that he simply couldn't keep on with his monastic life.

Chapter five: Introspection

He realized his obstacle and he isolated himself from the outside world as punishment. Eventually, he developed full insight into life.

Chapter six: Temple Gate Challenge

The Temple Gate Challenge is the most significant ritual for a monk to acquire honors. Chun Yi challenged himself and broke every one of the defence layers that his brother monks have created.

He finally achieves his honors.

Chapter seven:

Chun Yi inherits his master monk's job and becomes an abbot of the temple. One day, a little boy is sent here and he will have to teach him. A new life cycle begins again.

The show has English subtitles displayed above the stage to keep you informed of the story line.

There is no dialogue, the show is all Kung Fu, dance and acrobatics. It is the fusion of modern dance with Chinese traditional arts, which make this performance unique and spectacular. Some of the best Kung Fu practitioners in China have been found for this production to perform on the stage.

Their average age is just 17 years old! The costumes, setting design and special effects have been created by some of the best stage directors and designers in China are all up to international standards.

After the show, your driver alone will transfer you back to your hotel.
